No Work, No Pay Council Tells Selmi

City Treasurer Paul Selmi was given two alternatives Wednesday at a special meeting of the city council:

1. Start working a full eight hours a day, as provided for by ordinance passed March 22; 2. Sue for his salary, which the council has refused to pay as long as the treasurer only works part-time.

In an hour session with the council Wednesday morning, Selmi declared the $400 a month salary established for the treasurer's position under ordinance was "unreasonable and not practical."

He maintained that the council should give his office more work, increase his salary and allow him a paid deputy to do the "menial" work.

Raise 'Illegal'

Informed by City Attorney Frank Blum that under the government code an elected official's pay could not be increased during his tenure in office, the council decided to let Selmi make the next move.

Monday night councilmen refused to sign the warrant providing for payment of half-a-month's salary to Selmi.

Mayor Joseph Verducci told Selmi, "The majority of the council feels you should devote full time to your duties in person as city treasurer. There's nothing else we can say. The next (Continued on Page 3)

The Town Record

By MONTE DAYTON

Colma would seem to be a bad place to get amnesia, but a memory victim was re-united with her family because she was fortunate enough to stop there.

Saturday Mrs. ALBERT LAGO-MARSINO, wife of the Colma cop chief, answered the door and was asked by a blond young lady where the nearest police station was. Mrs. L. informed her she couldn't have come to a better place to ask.

The girl identified herself as JUDY REECE, 17, of Albuquerque, N. M. and said she suddenly remembered who she was, but didn't know where she was.

School Board (Bored) Outlets Bewitching Hour By Two Bells

Jefferson Elementary School district board of trustees, known for their long-winded meetings, managed to set a new record Wednesday night (Thursday morning).

Getting the meeting scheduled for 8 o'clock underway exactly an hour late, the board labored through a 35-item agenda until 2:30 a.m., and only managed to transact about half the business.

An audience of nearly 50 people assembled for the session, but by the time the midnight hour had long since tolled, those in attendance numbered three.

The imperturbable trio were salesmen who had arrived at 7 p.m. to tell about their product. When the trustees got around to them at 2 a.m., their spokesman begged off and asked if they couldn't be heard at some other time.

At 2 a.m., even salesmen lose some of their enthusiasm for business.

Incidentally, last year the board adopted a policy that meetings would last no later than 11 p.m.

MIKE CALLAN BLASTS FATHER'S DISTRICT 'RIDICULOUS' REQUEST

A family feud appeared in the offing Wednesday night when Mike Callan, chairman of the Jefferson Elementary school board, declared "ridiculous" a sanitation district request for a larger pipe installation at Benjamin Franklin school.

Among directors of the North San Mateo County Sanitation district board is Thomas Callan Sr., the school trustee's father, and chairman of the county board of supervisors. Other directors are Councilmen Sanford Vickers and Del Wilson.

The district, under a strict policy enforced against subdividers and all other builders, demands certain size sewers and certain depth of installation.

In this case, the sewage district asked that the school install a larger pipe and raise the pipe to a depth of six feet, total cost for which was estimated at $7500.

"Won't Pay Anything"

"We won't pay anything unless we have to," declared Young Callan emphatically, asking "What right have they got to tell us what to do with our ground?"

Trustee Hartley Appleton jumped on the bandwagon, charging, "I think that sanitation board is drunk with their own authority. They're taking money out of the taxpayers pocket. I think they take us for a bunch of ninies. It's time for a showdown." The outspoken Appleton, who recently said "he heard" that the Daly City planning commission was "stacked," and more recently charged collusion among three school appraisers, was challenged by Callan on the "drunk with authority" statement.

"I'm just repeating what I heard," Appleton related.

Superintendent H. Z. Weibel told the board that, "It's only recently that the sanitation district got tough. Before they let Doelger install pipe that was 14 inches off."

Stating flatly that all the board would consent to would be raising the man-hole on the property, young Callan concluded that, "We ought to sue the sanitary district for letting their pipes overflow on school district property."

Appleton conceded that the board might "negotiate."

Weibel was advised to meet with the sanitation directors and inform them of the board's decision.

Plea For Dismissal Of Donati Bookie Charges

Motions to dismiss charges of bookmaking and conspiracy against Dino Donati of Daly City were taken under submission yesterday by Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci, as the longest preliminary hearing in the court's history threatened to drag on further.

During the hour long hearing yesterday, continued from the previous week, A. L. Lampert, deputy district attorney, qualified as an "expert" on bookmaking paraphernalia before the court, over objections of Donati's attorney, James MacInnis.

Lampert identified 20 exhibits as implements used in bookmaking. MacInnis, basing his arguments on technical points of law, motioned for dismissal of both counts against his client. Taking both under submission, Judge Bocci gave MacInnis five days in which to submit points of authority in support of his motion and gave the district attorney two days after that to submit an answering brief. He will decide on the motions when the hearing reconvenes June 26.

Part In Raid

Also testifying yesterday was Zachary Whitten, deputy district attorney, who told of his part on the May raid at the 1171 Brunswick street home of Marie Hammel, also facing charges of bookmaking and conspiracy.

MacInnis employed strenuous cross-examination to discredit testimony of both the district attorney's deputies.

MacInnis motion for dismissal on the conspiracy charge may pose a difficult strategem for the district attorney's office to contest. In order to conspire to crime, there must be another party involved. And Mrs. Hammel has been granted immunity from prosecution on the charges against her after agreeing to testify for the district attorney last week, so charges against her are expected to be dismissed.

Last Friday Donati appeared for arraignment on federal charges of failure to pay his wagering stamp and pay excise tax on horse race wagers he allegedly accepted over a four-month period. He is scheduled to enter his plea today.

This week Donati was slapped with a $128 judgement by the county, for costs incurred by the county in handling a $125,000 damage suit filed by him against the district attorney.

Donati dropped the suit, but Superior Judge Aylett Cotton ruled in favor of the county's request to recoup costs incurred in handling the case, including $3 for filing a demurrer to the complaint; $25 for a court reporter's fee to take a deposition, and $100 for time spent by the district attorney's office in preparation of their defense.

Apartment Annex Hits Snag Before Planners

Thomas Callan Co.'s proposed annexation of land in the Seventy-Five Dollar Homestead was rejected by the city planning commission Tuesday night, on advice of City Attorney Frank Blum.

Callan had asked that the commission zone the land in various categories prior to its annexation. In a letter to the commission, Blum pointed out that the land could be annexed only if it were unclassified.

The commission ruled that Callan would have to re-submit the matter in conformance with this ruling.

The land proposed for annexation is located between 88th and 91st streets and Edgeworth and Sullivan near Broadmoor.

$3,000,000 Project

According to Thomas Callan Jr., the property will be the site of a $3,000,000 425-unit apartment development.

Revised tentative map of Westlake Unit 9, altered after the Jef-erson Elementary School district abandoned the Abraham Lincoln school site, was approved. The new map calls for location of residences on the land which was to have been occupied for the school, and lists two new streets.

Other Action

1. Approved request for non-conforming use permit for Zoila E. Cubillo, 106 Santa Cruz avenue, allowing her to do sewing in her home.

2. Denied request for a non-conforming use permit from William Earl Russell, 543 Bellevue avenue, to manufacture small pieces of furniture in his basement.

3. Approved use permits for installation of signs to the following firms: Spotlite Market, 1 Hillside boulevard; Suburban House, 2147 Junipero Serra boulevard; Westlake Barber Shop, 189 Southgate avenue; Lee's Pharmacy, 6395 Mission street, and 6389 Mission street.

$1,229,000 Daly City Budget Faces Council Scrutiny Monday Night

CEMETERY STRIKE dragged on this week while the graveyards began to show results of more than a month without care. It is expected that the work stoppage by Colma cemetery workers will cost owners thousands of dollars in repair to the grounds. Union demand of 15 cents an hour pay boost has so far been rejected by the Associated Cemeteries of San Francisco, while a compromise offer of 7 1/2 cents has been turned down by the unions. Second dispute between the union embalmers and mortuaries also remained unsettled.

A $1,229,000 Daly City budget, $110,000 above last year's, was reviewed by the city council at a special meeting Wednesday, but the figure will probably be whittled when the council holds another fiscal meeting Monday night.

City Manager Howard Stites said all the council did during the three-hour session was review the entire budget, but he indicated the $1,229,000 figure "would have to be cut appreciably."

Questioned whether the $1.43 per $100 valuation tax rate would have to be raised, Stites said, "I'd hesitate to venture."

Because of increased valuation, the general property tax levy will bring in about 12 per cent more in revenue in the 1956-57 fiscal year, but only one-third of the city's finances come from the general tax levy.

In order to hold the present tax rate, Stites explained, the city will have to figure some way to finance all the necessary capital improvements from money other than general operating funds.

"If we're going to have all the cultural improvements that we should have," the manager continued, "We'll have to find some way to finance these projects."

Stites said that by the time the council got through making further cuts in the budget Monday night, it would probably be pretty close to last year's $1,109,000 figure. At any rate, he added, the budget increase will not exceed 10 per cent.

Monday night the council will review each department budget and determine where cuts, if any, should be made. The budget presented to the council by Stites on Wednesday had already been whittled in several departments, Stites said.

First preliminary budget is expected to be ready by July 1.

NON-CLASSROOM PERSONNEL WIN INTERIM PAY HIKE

Interim salary schedule for administrative employees in the Jefferson Elementary School district was approved by the board of trustees Wednesday night.

The schedule, which establishes ratios of pay in excess of that received by teachers, will cost the district an estimated $17,615 more for salaries in 1956-57.

Only changes in the schedule over this year was raising of the salary ratio of seventh and eighth grade principals from 20 per cent above that of teachers, to 27 per cent and removal of nurses and special teachers from the non-classroom schedule.

Position of curriculum coordinator was eliminated from this above category, and dropped to the level of K-6 principals at a ratio of 1.20.

Has the U.S. bureau of census counted you?

Chances are one of the 42 workers currently conducting a census in Daly City under direction of supervisor H. Herbert Bamford has been around to count heads at your home.

But Bamford said today that many people will not be counted because they have not been at home when the enumerators made their rounds.

Bamford urged all persons who have not been contacted to mail in the information in care of "special census supervisor, city hall, Daly City."

The census will end this Friday. He indicated that the count so far shows Daly City's population well in excess of the 23,951 recorded here at a special census two years ago. But the total may well fall short of the 30,000 predicted earlier by city officials, he said.

Bamford said the cooperation of all citizens will make possible a higher population count for Daly City.

Should Daly City's population hit 30,000, the city will receive an additional $77,000 next year in state subventions, figuring $11 per capita.

Bamford asked persons who thought they had not yet been counted in the census to forward the following information: Name of each person whose usual place of residence was in this household on May 29, 1956; relationship of this person to the head of the household as head, wife, son, roomer, etc.; sex, color or race, age at last birthday.

Broadmoor Group Wins Special School Funds

A contingent of Broadmoor and Colma residents did Wednesday night what the city of Daly City was unable to attain in nearly a year.

Represented by Michael Orlich, Jefferson High school coach, a group of citizens succeeded in having the Jefferson Elementary School district board of trustees allot $3348.40 from the special 5 cent recreation tax to be used for a summer recreation program in the unincorporated areas.

Daly City has tried repeatedly, without success, to have some of the $16,000 raised from the special tax allocated for a joint recreation program.

In fact, it was at Daly City's urging that the school board leveled the tax last year.

Orlich, recreation chairman of the James L. Snell PTA, appeared at the meeting with Thomas Jenkins, Elman Rose and Jack Baker of Broadmoor, Thomas Noonan of Sterling Park, and Stanley Brown of Garden Village.

He explained that Rose, former Daly City recreation director, will supervise the program. One director will man Colma elementary playground, two will staff Garden Village, while a woman will handle arts and crafts.

The program is scheduled to start Monday and will continue through August 24.

Census May Fall Short Of 30,000 Prediction

DC Firemen To Burn Down Walton Home

In preparation of building a new home for the James Walton family, the charred remains of their former residence, 108 Knowles avenue, will be burned down by the Daly City fire department on Tuesday night.

The Waltons and four of their children were burned out of the Knowles avenue home on May 15. They were without insurance.

Peter Markovich, spokesman for the committee to aid the stricken family, reported today that donations have swelled to $2121.31. Tickets for donations are available at the Chamber of Commerce office, 6454 Mission street.

Meanwhile, it was announced that plans for the new Walton home to be erected on the burned out site have been donated by Louis Canepa, general contractor of 562 Winchester street.

The Walton committee will meet tonight (Friday) at 8 p.m. at Company 5 firehouse on Lake Merced boulevard. The public is invited to attend.

City Must Install Tract Water Pipes, Attorney Maintains

The council will decide June 25 whether a former city engineer's promise to supply water "on demand" means that the city has to provide water mains free for a local subdivision.

William Pinney, attorney representing builders of the Myrtle Tract, told the council Monday that the "city is obligated to supply my client with water."

A former planning commissioner, Pinney pointed out that water must be supplied "on demand" to all homes within the city limits at the time the municipal water department was set up by bond issue in 1913.

He said the council had only required installation of mains by builders when the land was recently annexed.

Quotes Letter

Pinney also quoted a letter from former city engineer Edwin Smith which said that the city would supply water to the Myrtle tract "on demand."

School Awards Bid For Landscaping Work At $71,620

Contract for supplying landscaping and other improvements at Jefferson Elementary district schools was awarded to Watkins & Sibbald Wednesday night for $71,620 at the regular meeting of the board of trustees.

The contract calls for installation of sprinkling systems, landscaping, and other improvements at Colma, Westlake, Olympia and Garden Village.

Bids for the Vista Grande school were received but were returned to the contractors unopened, inasmuch as there were only two proposals submitted. Chairman Michael Callan said two bids were "insufficient for a school of this size."

Meanwhile, a team composed of Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, Sanitation Engineer Raymond Theep, Building Inspector George Hopman and Poundmaster Charles Maschinot visited the residence Wednesday morning. All reported that the premises had been cleaned somewhat since police had been there earlier, but that there was still much cleanup work to be done.

As the Greens only rent the residence, the owner of the house will also be notified of its condition, the men said.

while Selmi sat in his loneliness in the council chambers waiting for proceedings to get rolling.

Times change: When Peninsula Bus Lines was pleading before the council here last year to aid it in gaining certificate to operate the Cemeteries run, the attorney for the line was oh-so-sure that the run would be highly profitable at a 15-cent fare.

Now that they've got it, the price of travel is going up . . . at least it will jump to 20 cents if the application now before the PUC is approved. The busmen say traffic is low now. But will it increase at a five-cent per head higher rate?

Earlier this year Drake was arrested on a charge of attempted rape, but the case was dismissed by the district attorney's office at the request of the complaining witness.

IT'S WHITTLING TIME AGAIN

Monday night the city council will begin what we hope is a thorough trimming job on a $1,229,000 budget for the 1956-57 fiscal year. It is obvious that there will have to be some increase over last year's $1,109,000 budget, because when cities grow, like families, the cost of providing goes up.

Budgets have a way of getting bigger every year in every city. Likewise, so do taxes.

But somewhere the spiral has to stop. If there is no foreseeable end to the population growth-budget increase-tax increase pattern, then municipal officials have got to sit down and re-examine the picture.

We think with judicious pruning and with good old Yankee thrift, the council can pare the budget to a size where a tax increase will be avoided.

Admittedly, there will be departments that will suffer to some degree. But this is nothing new. There never has been a single governmental agency that couldn't use more money if it knew where to obtain it.

We aren't condoning budget cuts that would seriously impair the operation of the city. But the council should have enough savvy to distinguish between hardship and inconvenience.

Somewhat, somebody has got to "hold that line" against increased taxes. In this case, that burden falls on the city council.

We would like to see the city have every modern piece of equipment and the optimum number of personnel for every job.

But if it means another boost in the tax rate, bring on the hatchet.

EAGLES CORNER

By Dell Fehl

With but one meeting under the belts of our new and untried officers there are only a few bits of information to relay on to the members of Colma Vista Grande, FOE. However, they are of major importance and worthy of comment.

Worthy President Charles Bartha appointed a few of his committees which are: D. Griffin, sports; H. Magure, program; L. Shaw, old age; R. Liberty, auditor; D. Fehl, membership, and J. Summers, delinquency.

The meeting began exactly on time at 8:15 p.m. and was attended by about 35 persons including seven past worthy presidents. During the evening an important item of a change in the bylaws came up for the third and final reading. Be on hand next Thursday night to hear this very important matter. It will be up to the membership to make the change or reject it.

Conventions details were discussed with hopes of many of you participating on June 22, 23 and 24. Headquarters will be at the Sheraton-Palace hotel.

Al (Lefty) Wright was the first member to be fined—only 10 cents, but he finally paid.

H. Kalinin, our conductor, worried for weeks about his part in the opening ceremonies, but he did a swell job.

C. Cofield, with just a bit of effort, could easily become the president of the S. D. club.

Car Mishap Breaks Both Legs Of Pedestrian, 70

A 70-year-old Daly City pedestrian suffered two broken legs last Thursday night when he was struck by a car as he crossed the street at Mission and Templeton.

Victim of the accident was Louis Mory, 6123 Mission street. Officers listed the driver of the car as Donald Patrick Welch, 41, 461 Forest View, South San Francisco.

Mory was confined at Commu-

PAIR APPEAR IN COURT ON CHILD MOLEST CHARGES

The men recently arrested on charges of child molesting here appeared in municipal court Tuesday. They were Edwin Burlington, 67, 318 Polk street, San Francisco, and Cecil Eugene La Barr, 40, a nursery worker of 363 Rhine street.

Burlington, who is charged with molesting a seven-year-old child at Frankfort park on May 27, entered a plea of not guilty and demanded a jury trial. He was represented by Attorney Antonio Gaudio.

Trial was set for August 20 by Judge Thomas L. Bocci. Meanwhile, Burlington remains free on $500 bail.

La Barr, who is charged with trying to molest a 13-year-old girl after sending her several lewd letters, was granted a week's continuance to enter plea. He is free on $750 bail.

In other action Tuesday:

Raymond J. Oakes, 76 "Miriam street, arrested here June 1 on a charge of being drunk in a public place, forfeited $10 bail.

Pearl Affolter, 242 Wyandotte street, pleaded guilty to a charge of drunk driving here May 31. She paid a $150 fine in lieu of 30 days in the county jail.

No Work, No Pay, Council Tells Selmi

move is up to you." Councilman Sanford Vickers was the only dissenter to this policy, asking for a survey of the job and a report by Blum on the possibility of repealing the ordinance. "After all," he said, "We're paying $400 and only getting part-time work. I think we ought to lower the salary to $100 and have certain specified hours when Selmi would be in his office. We've got to consider the economy of this."

Cites Election

Councilman Del Wilson said Vickers "should have thought of this before we passed the ordinance. The election was held with the understanding that the person elected would work full time."

"I agree," declared Councilman Michael De Bernardi. "He was elected in good faith and the monetary returns are equivalent to the work done."

Vickers protested that, "It adds more to the cost of government. I'm not in favor of the $400 salary and having a deputy, too."

To which De Bernardi replied, "Nobody said anything about him having a deputy."

Earlier in the meeting, Verducci proposed that Selmi's salary might be augmented by turning over tax collecting duties to him, which provides for $50 a month compensation.

City Manager Howard Stites added that he could supply Selmi with part-time assistance for clerical work, but couldn't spare any bookkeepers.

"What Do You Want?" "I need a bookkeeper-clerk," answered Selmi. "What do you want me to do in this job?"

"Whatever the treasurer's job calls for," replied the mayor. "My job is to keep you informed of finances," Selmi answered. "You're putting me on the basis of an employee."

"You are an employee," retorted Councilman Paul Hupf. "You have the highest responsibility to the people of Daly City. The fact that you're elected, if anything, makes your trust greater."

"You're just trying to continue under the same status as when you were receiving $75 a month," charged Verducci.

"The council felt in enacting the ordinance that you would supervise the office and also do the necessary work," continued the mayor.

"The salary doesn't indicate this," Selmi rejoined. "Asked what his intentions were when he ran for the office, Selmi stated, 'I didn't think anything. I was not called in on this. I felt it was nothing but politics.' Selmi explained that he filed for re-election before the status of the treasurer's job was changed by ordinance."

"Take Exception" When the mayor again mentioned possibility of delegating tax collection to Selmi at an increase of $50 a month, Hupf intervened: "I take exception to any commitment of adding the tax collector duties. I question any bartering as not in the interests of the people of Daly City. Selmi is an adult and was elected to office. The people voted on the idea that it was a full-time job. It's his duty to the people. I do not think he is fulfilling his duties."

Selmi questioned whether he should work full-time at $400 a month, to which Hupf asserted, "You're no exception. If you think you're worth more than $400, maybe the treasurer's job is not for you. The $400 is more than adequate."

"What is your authority?" queried the treasurer.

"I think I am qualified to speak on the matter," replied Hupf.

After the meeting, councilmen indicated they would sign Selmi's pay check if he assumed his duties full time. Otherwise, he will probably have to sue for the money and force a court settlement of the issue.

Form Children's 'Book Friends' Club

Formation of a "Book Friends" club for the benefit of elementary school age children was announced this week by Mrs. Rosamund Plummer, children's librarian.

The summer reading program is being carried out through the cooperation of the public libraries, Jefferson elementary school district and Friends of the Library.

Registration of the children will be held next week at the Daly City, Broadmoor-Westlake and Colma libraries. Friends of the Library members will assist in signing up youngsters for the club.

A record of each member and the books he has read during the summer will be kept. Just before school opens in the fall, a party is planned at which time the children will be presented with cards showing their summer reading activities.

Purpose of the program is to encourage youngsters to continue their reading so as to maintain the skills taught during the school year, Mrs. Plummer explained. List of suggested reading ma-

Shifting Signals At Top Of The Hill Questioned At Meet

Re-design of traffic signals at Mission street and Hillcrest intersections, proposed recently by Councilman Michael De Bernardi, was questioned Monday by George Kirchhubel, local tavern owner.

Kirchhubel said the present signal installations "really cut down accidents" and claimed that engineers told him the complicated signals were among the "toughest" to install in Northern California.

"I don't know if a councilman is qualified to change a marvelous piece of work like this," the citizen opined.

"Let's be thankful we've got them," he concluded.

De Bernardi said he agreed that installation of the signals was complicated, but pointed out that, "My system is to keep the same number of signals at no extra cost. It's not something new. It's just shifting to get signals at Knowles and Hillside."

NOW PENINSULA BUS LINE SEEKS RATE INCREASE

Peninsula Bus Line's request for a five-cent rate increase will meet with the opposition of Daly City.

The council was notified Monday that A. E. Ryan, operator of the line, has asked that fares be raised from 15 cents to 20 cents for the run from the top of the hill in Daly City to the Cemetery.

Ryan, in applying for a hearing before the state public utilities commission, claimed that in the eight months the line had been in existence it had lost $12,000.

"Eight months ago when he came to us he said he could operate for 15 cents," observed Councilman Michael De Bernardi. "I think we should object to the increase."

City Manager Howard Stites commented that, "The solution of engineering problems doesn't always come from engineers. I think Mr. De Bernardi's idea is an excellent one."

Troop 243 Presents Court Of Honor

Boy Scouts of Troop 243, sponsored by the Men's club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church were dined and advanced in scouting with parents and scout dignitaries in attendance Saturday in the church auditorium.

Guests were first served a roast beef dinner, followed by an impressive candlelight ceremony. At this point Frank Blum, Daly City city attorney, presented institutional representative Olin Craig with the troop charter.

Russel Hanley, Lake Merced district commissioner, then called the scouts to the stage where they were presented with advancement badges.

Scouts to receive the advancements were:

First Class: Robert Brooks, Ricky Craig, Michael Brush, Michael Drew, William Yriberri.

Second Class: Danny Craig, Fred Brooks, John Marino, Robert Brush.

Tenderfoot: John Vogt, Tony Furger, Michael Goulden.

Serving as master of ceremonies, Jim Goulden, president of the Men's club, made an appeal to all present to actively recruit local boys to membership.

In charge of the dinner arrangements were Ernest Reyes and Dudley Storm, troop committee member and chairman.

Father Norman Allen, assistant Pastor of O.L.P.H., was on hand. The troop as a unit, will attend summer camp at Camp Royanah the last week in June with Scoutmaster Harry Hottel and his associate Bill Washburn.

Before you leave on that trip check the mechanical condition of your car, advises the National Automobile club. Pay particular attention to the brakes, tires, steering system, lights, and windshield wiper.

The council was unanimous in voting to oppose his application for increase.

Catholic Laymen Plan Sunday Meet

Catholic laymen from thirteen Northern California counties will gather in the Cow Palace Sunday for a program of dedication to God and country.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish will be well represented, according to Frank Shea, Holy Name society chairman for this event.

A caravan of automobiles will leave from O.L.P.H. school hall at 2:15 p.m., and all Catholic men of Daly City are invited to participate in this second annual public demonstration of religious faith and patriotism.

Features of the ceremony will be a solemn benediction, an address by the Most Reverend Joseph T. McGucken, coadjutor bishop of Sacramento, and a mass pledge of allegiance to the flag, led by Major General Walter J. Muller, deputy commanding general of the Sixth Army.

Catholic fathers are urged to bring their teen-age sons as part of the observance of Father's Day. Several thousand servicemen are also expected to participate.

Colma PTA
Honors Mrs.
Edna Black

Mrs. Elda Black, sixth grade teacher at Jefferson elementary school, was honored at a recent meeting when President Marchetti of Colma P.T.A. presented her with a "Glee Club" pin in appreciation for her cooperation and provision of fine music and singing by the Glee club for P.T.A. programs.

Edward Mosconi, acting recreation director for the city of Daly City, gave high-lights on opportunities available to youngsters during summer vacation. He said,
"More teachers help will be available. Notices of all activities, dates, time, and location will be listed in The Record. Cooperation and harmony will help the recreation department to accomplish what they set out to do."

The California and National Parent Teacher magazines have published many interesting projects to do during the summer time, he added.

Rams, Vikings Tops In Girls Softball At Colma School

Mrs. Sarah Mitchell's Rams are the new champions in the seventh grade noon hour softball league at Colma, while Forest Simoncini's Vikings annexed the eighth grade diadem.

Members of the winning Ram team were: Nancy Reynolds, captain, Jayneene Armstrong, Norma Featherstone, Irene Hermosello, Barbara Huntington, Diane Kennedy, Irene Marino, Carol Romero and Jeannette Wickersheimer.

Mrs. Muriel Grassman's Redskins were runners-up in the seventh grade circuit, while Barbara Biagini's Wildcats took third.

Members of Simoncini's club were: Emma Hale, captain, Antonette Bocceleri, Elaine Boyle, Diane Dier, Sandra Leavitt, Judy Massoni, Pat O'Toole, Jackie Shambor and Joyce Wilson.

Second and third place in the eighth grade division went to Noel Ranger's Rangers and Charles Solley's Midgets.

The powerful Wm. Lagomarsino Realty nine moved a step closer to the Daly City Adult Softball league playoffs Wednesday with a convincing 12-1 victory over Shannon Hardware.

Heavy hitting of Bill Martinelli in the sixth inning featured a five-run outburst that left no doubt as to the final results.

Tuesday at the Jefferson diamond Ralph's Cleaners rapped Daly City Drugs, 9-4.

The tough Broadmoor police nine recorded their second victory by downing Gino's Club, 8-2, at Marchbanks.

A big second inning turned the tide for the bluecoats as they put together a trio of hits to post a four-run lead.

Playing under miserable weather Wednesday at Jefferson, the Eagles buried the OLPH Men's club, 24-8, with a show of batting power.

The Eagles scored five; six and eight runs in the first three frames to put the game away in the deep freeze.

Homers by Larry Kennedy, Ron Quint and Kenny Smith kept the Eagles bombardment winging away.

DRIVE SAFELY Always drive at a safe speed, advises the National Automobile club.

Jeff Linksmen 2nd In Tourney

Nabbing second in the PAL golf tournament last week at Lake Merced, Jefferson High school moved up the rankings to finish second in the overall league competition.

Capuchino, winner of the season crown, bested Jefferson by seven strokes in the league tourney played at the local course Thursday, 323-330.

Sharing medalist honors in the competition was Jefferson's Jim Giblin, who dead-locked with Dan James of Capuchino at 76.

Giblin blew a four-foot putt on the 18th hole, or he would have been all by himself for individual honors.

Behind Giblin for the Jefferson quartet were Al Harris, 82, Wayne Guisti, 84, and Steve Opperman, 88. Stan Weld and Dick Stookey carded 91 and 89, respectively, for Jefferson, but only the scores of the first four finishers were figured in the competition.

Opperman, Coach Mike Orlich's number 4 man, appeared on his way to clinching the title for the Indians as he toured the front nine in 40. A 40 on the last nine holes would have given the Indians victory by one stroke, but Opperman, only a freshman, went for a big 48 on the back nine as he bogeyed the 16th hole and double bogeyed the final two holes.

Originally tied for third in league standing with 5½ points in dual meet competition, behind Lincoln, 7, and Capuchino, 9, the Indians boosted themselves into second by gaining two points for their second place effort in the tourney.

Officials of Lake Merced golf course were lauded by all the PAL coaches for their generosity in turning over the course to the preps for the competition.

PISA 9 SPLITS WEEKEND TILTS

Starting fast with two runs in the first and another in the second, Dante's New Pisa Juniors played sparkling defensive ball Sunday behind Mike Wall's two-hit pitching to blank St. Gabriel's Juniors, 3-0.

The lads had dropped a close one to St. Cecilia's Juniors on Saturday, 5-4, but bounced back with six hits off Red Mahoney, ace St. Gabe pitcher, and won with some heads up base running. Bill Ludwigen had two hits for Dante's and O'Keefe made both hits for the losers.

Mahoney was wild at times, but New Pisa hit in the clutches, and Mike Rovai, Bill Hynes and Mike Kulik each batted in runs. The real test was on defense, however, and only twice did St. Gabe get a man past second. Once with the bases loaded, Phelan hit back to Wall, who forced Scott at home.

Playing at Marchbanks this Sunday, the New Pisa's travel to South City next Saturday to play the Kiwanis and to San Carlos on the following Sunday for a second meeting with St. Charles Juniors there.

Vuillemainroy Smacks Two In All-Star Tilt

Ray Vuillemainroy was the only Jefferson player to see action Saturday in the annual North-South PAL baseball game, and the pitcher gave an admirable performance—not on the mound, but at the plate, as the North was buried, 12-6.

Vuillemainroy batted two for

Colma Spikemen Shine In S. S. F. Invitational

Paced by Boyd John's first, second and lap on the victorious eight-man relay team, Colma school eighth graders finished third in the South San Francisco invitational track meet Saturday, while the seventh grade club was annexing first in their division.

John won the 50-yard dash, took second in the broad jump and ran on the winning relay team which included George Perez, Brad Turcott, Benito Lopez, Roger Stahl, Fernando Rivas, Luther Massey and Eric Rossovich.

Turcott went seven inches over his previous best as he claimed fourth in the high jump with a leap of 4' 9". Perez took third in the 60-yard dash, while Stahl was runner-up in the 75-yard sprint.

Joe D'Antonio and Gary Monyhun were the standouts for the seventh graders, as the local team finished with 31 points, ahead of South San Francisco, 22, Burlingame, 10, and San Bruno 9.

D'Antonio annexed second in the broad jump and first in the 80-yard dash, while Monyhun took the 75 and the high jump.

Robert Alta and Tony Montalvo ran one-two for Colma in the 50-yard race, while the Colma relay team of D'Antonio, Monyhun, Alta, Montalvo, King Spencer, Mike Seelig, Paul Osborne and Ed Smith won their event.

Baseball, Politics Mix Well

Baseball and politics, unlike gasoline and alcohol, do mix. This was proved Sunday at Colma school when Callan Heights Hummingbirds outlasted Teresa Terrace Titwillows softballers, 4-2, in a contest umpired by Mayor Verducci and Councilman Del Wilson.

Although a few decisions may have cost votes in one subdivision, what was lost there was picked up in good will in the other tract. Verducci umpired with, according to the Titwillows, the aid of his seeing-eye dog, and Wilson worked the base-paths, and was reported to have the most jovial "your out" in the sports world.

Callan Heights opened scoring in the third when John Crowhose scored from third as Bill Winters bunted with two outs and Wilson called him safe. The 'Birds' talked again in the top of the eighth when Winters hit a line driver homer with Lou Stark and Pat Cassidy aboard.

In the bottom of the Titwillows' with Jack Mini and Don Lesher on bags one and two, Boudin hit to third and was safe on an over-throw to first, which scored Mini. Then an over-throw at third went into the spectators and as Lesher attempted to score the ball was retrieved by a bystander and he was thrown out at home.

The rhubarb waxed eloquently!

The mayor, berated by both sides, stood there bewildered with 1960 votes falling to the winds in every direction, and finally ruled that the run had scored.

The next man up popped out ending the rally, and the game was over, with the margin to Callan Heights, 4-2.

Teresa Terrace was appeased by the fact that they had won the hassle at home plate, while Callan Heights was jubilant over their victory. A straw ballot in the area would probably have shown the two city officials political stock soaring.
